Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

2. The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).
3. Claims 1-16, 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable by Wacyk (US 2003/0020598A1).

Regarding claims 1, 10, 24, Wacyk discloses a system for controlling luminaries (10a to 10b' and 52a to 52b') from a plurality of different locations over a digital addressable lighting interface (DALI) control bus, the system comprising: a plurality of luminaries (10a to 10b' and 52a to 52b') connected to a power source and a digital addressable lighting interface (DALI) control bus; a DALI master (20) connected to the DALI control bus (22' and 62); a DALI control bus power supply connected to the DALI control bus (22' and 62); and at least one DALI sub-master (12-12') connected to the

Art Unit: 2821

DALI control bus (22-22'), wherein the DALI master (20) and the at least one DALI sub-master (12-12') control different ones of said plurality of luminaries (10a to 10b' and 52a to 52b'). See figures 1-5c, col.1, lines [005] to col.7, lines [0066] to lines [0067].

Regarding claims 2, 11, Wacyk discloses the DALI master and said DALI sub-master are in different locations. See figure 1.

Regarding claims 3, 5, 12 and 14, Wacyk discloses the different locations are selected from the group consisting of room, office, conference room, lunch room, coffee bar, bathroom, laboratory, reception area, closet, storage room, hall and lobby. See col.2, lines [0012] to lines [0013].

Regarding claims 4 and 13, Wacyk discloses the ones of the plurality of luminaries (10a to 10b' and 52a to 52b') controlled by the DALI master and the ones of said plurality of luminaries controlled by said DALI sub-master are in different locations. See figures 1 and 2.

Regarding claims 6 and 15-16, Wacyk discloses a computer interface coupled to said DALI master. See col.1, lines [005] to lines [006].

Regarding claims 21-23, Wacyk discloses a detecting a transmission collision causing a corrupted command and retransmitting the corrupted command. See figure 5B.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 17-20, 25-27, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over by Wacky (US 2003/0020598A1).

Regarding claims 17-20, Wacyk discloses the claimed invention except for a computer interface is selected from the group consisting of RS-232, RS-422 and USB. It would have been an obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to employ a group consisting of RS-232, RS-422 and USB, since the examiner takes Office Notice of the equivalence of connectors or cables for their use in the art and the selection of any of these known equivalents to a group consisting of RS-232, RS-422 and USB would be within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Regarding claims 25-27, Wacyk discloses the claimed invention except for a group consisting of an incandescent light, a fluorescent light, a high pressure gas electric discharge light, a low pressure gas electric discharge light, light emitting diode light and electroluminescent light. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to employ a group consisting of an incandescent light, a fluorescent light, a high pressure gas electric discharge light, a low pressure gas electric discharge light, light emitting diode light and electroluminescent light, since applicant has not disclosed that a group consisting of an incandescent light, a fluorescent light, a high pressure gas electric discharge light, a low pressure gas electric discharge light, light emitting diode light and electroluminescent light solves any stated problem or is for any particular purpose and it appears that the invention would perform equally well with a group consisting of an incandescent light, a fluorescent light, a high pressure gas electric discharge light, a low pressure gas electric discharge light, light emitting diode light and electroluminescent light.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Dowling et al (US 6,548,967) and Sid. (US 6,175,201) are cited to show a addressable light system.
